Chess Club

Hi everyone,

Here's a reminder that we have a two-section tournament scheduled for Sunday, July 14 @ 1:00pm; one section for beginners and the other for those with some experience rated over 700. Currently, we have eight players in the lower section ranging from unrated first-timers to 650 and six players in the 700+ section. Those six players range in rating from approximately 800 to 1200. The tournament will be G25+5 and consist of four rounds. It will be at our new location: 6284 Spring Mountain Road near the Jones intersection.

This tournament is perfect for the majority of players in our Club. If you've never played a tournament before, this is the perfect event for you. If you've been considering getting back into Chess with a rating from years ago, this is a tournament for you. If we haven't seen you in months, come check out our new home and get a fun tournament in the process.

At some point on Saturday afternoon, I will start a wait list so that we ensure an even number of players for each section. After the waitlist is started, if you make an odd number of players, I will contact you to let you know we have a full pair. Please don't wait until Sunday to register as we won't accept an odd number of players for either section.

As an added bonus, if you join our new Membership program for $100/year, you can take $10 off the $25 entry fee for this tournament. Thank you to the 16 players who have already paid their membership dues; some of whom are taking advantage of the special discount for Sunday.

To register or become a Paid Member, please click the appropriate links on our website. With a Paid membership, you'll receive $10 off any one tournament each month as well as free access to weekly Casual Chess starting in August.

Unrelated, we had 16 players competing in Round One of this month's Thursday Series. It's not too late to join that one, too. We ask that you have a minimum rating of approximately 900 to enter the monthly Series.

Unrelated, Part II: The 2024 Las Vegas Open and associated youth tournaments for the weekend of August 23-25 at the Rio, are beginning to get registrations. Take a look at KingRegistration.com and search for Las Vegas on that page to get all the info. You can also email me with any questions. Entry fees will go up on August 1. Kids who join SNVCC can take $10 off the Youth Tournament on August 24. Ask me for the Coupon Code.

Hope to see you soon!
